

DRAWINGS, PAINTINGS & PRINTS BY ALAN YOUNG

George Rodger Gallery

10 November - 8 December 2006

preview: Thursday 9 November, 5 - 7pm

This exhibition marks the culmination of several years' eyewitness research into cockfighting in Northern France. Charcoal drawings, made at events where cameras are not tolerated, have been developed digitally as a series of prints to accompany a written response to this cultural anomaly near the edge of extinction. A selection of varied work carried out in the last twenty years will be included to give the show the air of a retrospective.
